

Booths for Educational and Charitable Organizations

The Gulf Coast Renaissance Fair would like to extend an invitation to Groups and Organizations who would enrich the event experience for our patrons. Booth spaces are provided free of charge and placed as space allows.

If your organization, group, or club would like to be at the event, please keep in mind the following:

The weather is unpredictable, please have a tent to shelter your tables and workers

Please do your best to decorate your tent with a Medieval or Renaissance theme
Help is available upon request, but do not wait until the last minute to ask.

Persons at the booth should be dressed in costume.
These do not have to be elaborate or uncomfortable and help or information is available upon request for ideas, makeup and costume.

Persons at the booth should do their best to interact with patrons in a fun and friendly manner. A big smile and playful banter makes the event more enjoyable for everyone.

Have printed literature about your group available to hand out to the public.
If possible, provide giveaways such as whistles, lanyards or paper fans.

Make sure everyone on your team is knowledgeable about the group and can answer questions from the general public. It is helpful to have a prepared speech which can be recited in about a minute to introduce your group or talk about a concept.
